This topical seminar examines the recent decision by the Court of Appeal in the case of Circle 33-v-Kathirkmanathan* [2009] EWCA Civ 921 and its implications with regard to undertakings, injunctions and committals.

The seminar will also include a brief overview of applications pursuant to the relevant provisions of the Protection from Harassment Act 1997 and section 222 of the Local Government Act 1972.

The seminar will be given by Hardwicke's Brendan Mullee and Morayo Fagborun Bennett.

This seminar will cover:

- The description 'getting it right' refers to mistakes often made in the construction of wording in both undertaking and injunctions and the resultant difficulties with enforcement committals.
