Possession hearings & the use of hearsay evidence

It is common in possession hearings - especially those based on allegations of anti-social behaviour on the part of the tenant, their household and/or visitors - for the landlord to rely (at least in part) on the evidence of persons who do not attend to give evidence. They may also rely on criminal convictions and previous closure orders, anti-social behaviour injunctions, etc.

This seminar will cover:

- The appropriateness and admissibility of such evidence, with particular reference to the Civil Evidence Act 1995, CPR Parts 32 and 33 and authorities such as Hollington-v-F Hewthorn & Co Ltd [1943] KB 587 and Moat Housing Co Ltd – South LTD v (1) Carl Harris (2) Susan Colette Hartless [2005] EWCA Civ 287; (2005) 4 All ER 1051.

The seminar will be given by Hardwicke Barristers Kerry Bretherton and Andrew Lane.
