This seminar seeks to examine the key issues surrounding disability and future loss claims. Drawing on the combined expertise of both the Hardwicke Building Personal Injury and Employment teams, as well as key external speakers; it will provide valuable insight into our approach to the impact of long-term injury on working life and the basis of the Ogden 6 approach.

The speakers are barristers Christopher Camp and Colm Nugent; Dr. Victoria Wass (Senior Lecturer, Cardiff Business School) and Prof. Richard Verrall (Head of Faculty, Professor of Actuarial Statistics, City University London). We are delighted to have as guest speakers both Dr. Wass and Prof. Verrall, who provided the statistical research basis for the Ogden Tables (6th edition), on the impact of contingencies other than mortality on working life. Chairing the event will be barrister Steven Weddle.

The seminar will cover:

- Disability: Christopher Camp, Hardwicke Building
- Disability Discrimination & Personal Injury: Colm Nugent, Hardwicke Building
- The actuarial basis of Ogden 6 and the scope for discretionary adjustment: Dr Victoria Wass, Cardiff Business School and Prof. Richard Verrall, Cass Business School
